Dear Sir:

Please enter the following amendments and consider the following remarks.

IN THE CLAIMS:

Please amend the claims as follows:

Handwritten mark
~~10~~. (ONCE AMENDED) A medium storing instructions for use in reassigning functions on a remote control device having a plurality of function keys and a memory storing a [first] remote control function command [and a second remote control function command], the instructions performing steps comprising:

checking for an entry [a specification] of [the first function command, the first function command being mapped to] at least one function key selected from the plurality of function keys;

checking for [a specification] an entry of the [second] remote control function command; checking for an entry of a reassignment command code; and in response to the entry of the reassignment command code, the [specification of the first function command] at least one function key and the [specification of the second] remote control function command, mapping the [second] remote control function command to the at least one function key thereby effectively reassigning functions of the remote control device.

Handwritten mark
11. (ONCE AMENDED) The medium as recited in claim ~~10~~, wherein the remote control is adapted to control a plurality of devices and wherein the step of checking for the [specification]
